Hello Courtney,

Sorry for the delay in responding, yesterday was Range day. I asked Michele how long this would take her response was:

Erin,

It depends on purchasing's backlog. The person I work with is off until Monday so I will hopefully have a better idea on Monday or Tuesday.

They will have to leave it open for two weeks.

Thank you,

Subject: Vintra Bid

Michele,

Do you know how long it will take Purchasing to put the bid out for a 'Vintra' like product

And how long the bid is left open? Thanks,

Hey Erin,

I was just going to call you and somehow, I have no phone number in my system for you! I was certain we have spoken on the phone before but I can't find it anywhere so if you could send me that whenever you have time, no rush, I would appreciate it.

I saw on the news that you guys are having even more crazy weather! Stay safe out there, it seems like you have had more than your fair share already this year.

I was just going to check in to find out if your purchasing department has said when they plan to issue the bid and what the deadline will be, etc. Also, will you need me to respond to that one or will the current estimates we have already supplied be considered meeting the bid requirements?

Hope all is well and your holiday weekend was excellent, mine was too short...also, none of this is urgent, so if you are sheltering the storm, reply whenever you're back in the office!

Speak soon,
